

RUMI NIGHT

Dances of Universal Peace Zikr & Ecstatic Poetry

Beloveds ... Come, Come, Whoever you are Wanderer, Worshipper, Lover of leaving
Ours is Not a caravan of despair
Come, Come, Come Again

Cambridge 3rd Friday

December 18, 2009 7:30 pm

Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, 02138
(off Brattle St, a short walk from Harvard Sq.)

On a snowy winter's evening, December 17, 1272, Mevlana Jelaluddin Rumi's funeral procession moved through the streets of Konya, Turkey. His family and closest colleagues were joined by throngs of Jews, Christians, and Muslims, all claiming that Rumi's heart brought illumination to their spiritual traditions. Seven centuries later his resonant heart inspires unity and friendship among those of many religions and paths worldwide.

Join us for an evening of Remembrance and Unity

Co-sponsored by the local branches of
The Sufi Ruhaniat International (SAMA), and The Sufi Order International (Garden of Light)

For more information, and in case of inclement weather
call Halima at 617 876 5272 or call Auliya at 617 776 576

